

Full time	Australian registered GP working 20 hours or more per week.	$1445
Part time	Australian registered GP working fewer than 20 hours per week.
New Fellow	New RACGP Fellow ratified in the period 1 July 2019 – 30 June 2020.	$940
GP spouse/partner	Both the GP and the GP's spouse or partner are in full time general practice.
Not in active clinical general practice	GP who is not currently in active clinical general practice; a specialist practising predominately in hospitals; or a medical practitioner employed in other health sector fields.
Parental, sick or other leave	GP who is on parental or extended sick leave and who does not intend to practise during the financial year.
Senior	Practising GP who is aged 70 years or older.	$580
Overseas (GST N/A)	Medical practitioner who holds valid overseas medical registration and resides overseas.
Overseas – Domestic (GST N/A)	Medical practitioner who holds valid Australian medical registration and resides overseas for the majority of the financial year.
International medical graduate	Medical practitioner residing in Australia but has not yet obtained medical registration in Australia.	$465
General practice registrar	A medical practitioner who is enrolled in the Australian General Practice Training (AGPT) Program, the Remote Vocational Training Scheme (RVTS) or the Practice Experience Program (PEP).
Overseas – International (GST N/A)	Medical practitioner who holds valid International medical registration in Fiji, Hong Kong or Malaysia and resides overseas.	$285
Retired	GP who has permanently retired from general practice. This excludes access to the RACGP Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Program.	$80
Resident/Intern	Resident or intern who may be considering a career in general practice and is working in a hospital. This excludes access to the RACGP CPD Program.
Student upgrade	Currently enrolled in a medicine program approved under the National Law. Student upgrade members will receive a hardcopy subscription to the official RACGP medical journal, Australian Journal of General Practice . This excludes access to the RACGP CPD Program.	$80
Free student	Currently enrolled in a medicine program approved under the National Law. This excludes access to the RACGP CPD Program.	FREE